CHANNEL ISLANDS SPECIALISTS' SOCIETY

Founded in 1950 for the study of Channel Islands Stamps & Postal History

AUCTION RULES

LOTS AND MINIMUM VALUE: Usually a maximum of 100 lots will be accepted from any one member for inclusion in any one auction. Minimum value for each lot is £5 or at the auctioneer's discretion. Lots sent to the Auctioneer MUST BE recorded and fully insured. Members wishing to sell items of lesser value should consider submitting them to the Packet Secretary for the Society Packet boxes. The Auctioneer reserves the right to refuse lot(s) without reason.

DESCRIPTION: Lots submitted should be fully described by the Vendor with reserve prices clearly stated. The Channel Islands Specialists' Society cannot accept responsibility for any mis-description of lots.

RESERVES: All values shown are the Reserve prices. All reserve prices shown are those of the vendor and the Channel Islands Specialists' Society cannot accept responsibility for any reserve price or other statement made in this sale.

VIEWING: No lots can be sent for postal viewing. Scans of the majority of lots will be put on the website with the catalogue or can be sent by email for any item. Please keep these to a sensible minimum and to reach the Auctioneer as early as possible.

BIDS: All bids must be submitted in writing using the bid form provided and received by the date mentioned overleaf on the Bid Form and Auction Catalogue. EMAIL bids will be accepted. TELEPHONE bids will NOT be accepted. "Buy Bids" will not be accepted.

- Where two equal bids are made, the lot will be sold to the first received
 - The highest bid is not taken as the starting bid unless other bids are made to that value.
 - Bids will be accepted in stages of:

	Up to £30	£31 to £50	£51 to £100	£101 to £250	Over £250
Increments	£1	£2	£5	£10	£25

Bids must be made in accordance with the above increments. Any bid in-between increments will be rounded down.

- WINNING BIDS: Successful bidders will receive their lot(s) WITHIN 2 WEEKS of the sale. It is a condition of bidding that all invoices are settled promptly, preferably by return of post if at all possible. Lots not paid for within 14 days of receipt could be recalled and offered to the under bidder.
- REJECTIONS: Where a lot is found to be unsatisfactory by the buyer, it should be returned to the Auctioneer within three days of receipt. Refunds can only normally be made if the lot has been wrongly or misleadingly described.
- DISPUTES: In the event of any disputes, the facts will be referred to the Channel Islands Specialists' Society Executive Committee for judgment. Their decision will be final.
- BUYER'S PREMIUM: There is NO Buyer's Premium.
- COMMISSIONS: Charged to Vendors only at 10% of the realisation price on sold lots.
- INSURANCE: Arranged automatically by the Society and charged to Vendors only at 2% of the reserve price or price of realisation, whichever is the higher.
- POSTAGE: Including cost of any packing is charged to successful bidders.
- PAYMENTS: These will be made to Vendors when cleared payments have been received from all buyers. Postage and packing will be charged for the return of unsold lots.
